It opened in 1992, and caters mainly to students who have been unsuccessfully trying to meet the requirements of New Mexico's traditional middle schools. It is composed of six sections: Academics, Academics with AP Program, Dance, Writing, Art, and a Dining Room. In 1999 Perpetual

Middle School became an accredited alternative school. The Perpetual MS Music program is a performing arts program that consists of the Perpetual Mass Choir and various instrumental and choral ensemble groups. The Perpetual MS Drama program consists of various roles in the school's theater production each year. In addition to playing within the school during performances, students also have the opportunity to participate in regional and national competitions. Perpetual MS has a continuous enrollment process, where new students are admitted and enrolled by applying to the school. Applicants must be enrolled in one of the University of New Mexico's first-time freshmen classes and must be in the 8th grade. Enrollees must also have completed all coursework in New Mexico's middle school to apply. Perpetual MS has its own admissions tests that cover multiple subjects, and include AP tests as a small part of the overall grade. The school currently has ~90 students and an ~80% retention rate, and is of a similar size to a traditional middle school. It is used as the transfer school for those who do not graduate within Perpetual's program.
